

RUN FOR AUTISM – 2009 Bank of America Chicago Marathon

Thank you for supporting the Organization for Autism Research and the RUN FOR AUTISM! We have a very limited number of special entries available for the SOLD OUT Bank of America Chicago Marathon, and runners that wish to use one of these entries must agree to the following terms:

1. Commit to raise a minimum of $500 for the Organization for Autism Research and guarantee this amount with your personal credit card. If you do not raise the $500 minimum by October 1, 2009, your credit card will be charged the difference (this charge will be considered a tax-deductible charitable donation and you will receive a receipt for this purpose).
2. Once you receive an entry through OAR, this commitment will remain in effect, even if you do not run for any reason, including injury. You will still be held responsible for your $500 commitment and your card will still be charged on October 1, 2009 for the difference.

I understand that by submitting these forms, I will receive an entry to the SOLD OUT 2009 Bank of America Chicago Marathon. In return, I commit to raise at least $500 for the Organization for Autism Research. If I do not raise this amount by October 1, 2009 the credit card I have provided below will be charged the difference.
